Congregational Sunday School Has Fine Picnic in Mohegan Park-200 Members Attended-Charles Levander Back at Shetucket Mill-Local

One of the most enjoyable and the mostly largely attended picnic in years was held by the members of the greeneville Congregational Sunday school in Mohegan park all day Saturday. There were fully 200 present and all pronounced the new park an ideal place for an outing. The weather, too, was propitious, and taken as a whole it was one of the finest outings ever enjoyed by the Sunday school.

The tables had been placed near the paylion at the lake, and 1 o'clock

The tables had been placed near the pavilion at the lake, and 1 o'clock a delicious chowder, prepared by Bernard R. Tilly and Charles E. Grover, was served by the members of Mrs. Ellen Potter's class. The committee in charge of the dinner, besides Mrs. Potter, the chairman, was Miss Mary Henderson, Mrs. Thomas Young, Sr., Miss Ellen Hayes and Mrs. William Brown. It was a thoroughly old-fashioned picnic dinner with cake, sandwiches, ice cream and lemonade provided free by the Sunday school superintendent. William Crowe had charge of the ice cream and dispensed it with his usual facility.

A finely carried out athletic programme followed the dinner, and in charge of William Pinlayson, Samuel Crowe and James Fraser, members of the Good Will Bible class.

The class sho its guests returned home-in the late afternoon, well pleased with the success of their annual outing.

Personal Mention. There were many from Greeneville at Poquetanuck drawbridge Sunday. You could select no better time to urnish your home with up-to-date five weeks.

Mrs. John Carter Was Going Down Second Time When Pulled Out of Water at Allyn's Point,

In acknowledging the excellent manner in which the companies and officers had been treated by Lieutenant Pratt, commander at Fort Mansfield, a written testimonial from the officers of the Fourth provisional battallon was presented to him at the conclusion of the four of duty.

The work of Private Wood of the Fifth company came in for recognition from Major Hermann, who wrote Captain Tarbox as follows:

"It gives me pleasure to compliment the bearer, Private Wood of your company, on the able manner in which he has performed his duties as orderly July 21, 1909. This is the first time during our tour of duty that I have Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. John Carter and another couple started down the river in a boat for a day's outing, having taken their launch with them, expecting to be gone the entire day. Near Allyn's Point Mrs. Carter, in changiling her position in the boast, cause dit to capsize, and all were soon floundering in the stream.

Timely assistance was given by employees at Allyn's Point, and Mrs. Carter, who could not swim, was pulled.

ter, who could not swim, was pulled from the water, it was learned, as she was going down the second time. The captain of a barge at the Point gave them the use of his rooms and they dried their clothing there before returning home.

July 21, 1909. This is the first time during our tour of duty that I have taken this means of complimenting an orderly." Major Hermann commanded the four battalions.

The Fifth company had 57 men in camp and while all missed the practice fro mthe service firing which was prevented by the rain on Friday, they nevertheless had an instructive camp. Next year it is expected that the camp there will be much better, as a macadam road to the fort is expected then and there will be regular schedule maintained by a launch from Watch Hill.

THREE NEW FIRE

As the result of a snake bite received on Saturday Napoleon Langevin, aged 46, of North Stonington, lies in a critical condition at the Backus hospital in this city, it being uncertain whether he will recover. He was bitten back of the left car and the wound caused his head to swell very badly, and owing to the long time before he was brought to the hospital his chances are greatly lessened, although he was given a quantity of whiskey as an antidote.

Mr. Langevin lives at the crossing helow the Mystic road near Lantern Hill, and is a snake charmer, according to his statement. He owns a pair of copperhead snakes and there are several small ones. Saturday he was engaged in cleaning the cage, and at a time when he was off his guard one of the young ones struck him in the back of the head. He at once realized

FAREWELL SERVICE BY

THE SALVATION ARMY ALARM BOXES. Test Alarms Will Be Rung at Noon

Capt, and Mrs. Thorne held a fer-well service at the Salvation 9rmy headquarters on Main street Sunday night. Chief Stanton has installed three new and modern fire alarm boxes and they will be given a tryout this noon. At 12 o'clock box 234, which is jointly for the Turner-Stanton company and the Brainard-Armstrong company in Golden street, will be struck. At 12.15 the new box, No. 5, at Hopkins & Allen Arms company's, will be sounded, and No. 142, at Givenaud's slik mill in Mechanic street, will be rung. These are all private boxes.

After fourteen months of earnest, tireless, undiscouraged labor in Nor-Korwich, they are to begin work in a new field at Winsted, Conn., this coming week.

Capitain and Mrs. Thorne begin their new work Wednesday and on the same day their successor, who is not yet known, will hold his first meeting here. It will be a welcome meeting and the army and its friends will endeavor to give their new capitain a bordial reception at the headquarters.

Capitain and Mrs. Thorne leave Norwich with deep regret, and will never forget the people of this city, where they have worked indefatigably and with success for the cause during the past fourteen months. The driving has they have worked indefatigably and with success for the cause during the past fourteen months. The driving has been hard, said the captain, and the road has been tocky, but I made the statement fourteen months ago that the Salvation Army had come to stay, and I yet believe it.

The record of the army for the past year is inspiring and shows the tremendous work that has been effected by the two in charge. The best wishes of many loyal friends go with them in their new field.

ARRESTED FIVE.

Saturday morning the members of the Third, Fifth and Thirteenth companies, C. A. C., N. G., who had been at Fort Mansfield, R. I. for ten days, broke camp and packed up ready to come home. The baggage details with the baggage on a lighter, came home early, getting here about 4 o'clock, and had things about straightened dut when the members of the companies arrived by the Block Island. They reached the armory about 8, having idled about all day at the fort for the boat to bring them home. They will have meetings this week to get things into shape for the remainder of the summer, as there will be few, if any, more than these meetings.

That the local companies have reason to feel proud of their accomplishments is shown by the following sent to the Third, Fifth and Thirteenth company commanders by Lieutenant Pratt, and read to them:

Headquarters, Fort Mansfield, R. I.

July 23, 1969. Found at Slaughter House by Sergeant Connell and Supernumerary Blinder-

On Sunday night, acting upon complaint made to Captain Linton, Sergeant Connell and Supernumerary Binderman, who is acting for Policeman Bray, went to the slaughterhouse near the tannery, and there found five men, drinking and carousing. They were placed under arrest, and gave some trouble before they were locked up. There was a quantity of whiskey found where they had been having their time and there were many empty bottles.

Saturday night there was trouble in Greeneville when Sergeant Connell placed John Gredy under arrest. This was objected to by his son. William Grady, and ther was quite a tussle, resulting in the arrest of both. It was necessary for the sergeant to use his stick, and the younger Grady carries a sore head.

FUNERAL.

At 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon the funeral of Lemuel B. Park was held from the First Baptist church, at which there was a large attendance, including there was a large attendance, including a number from out of town. There were many floral forms, showing the esteem in which the deceased was held. Owing to the absence of Rev. W. T. Thayer from the city and state. Rev. M. S. Kaufman, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, conducted the services, taking his text from St. John 12: 7, "Jesus answered and said unto them, what I do thou knowest not now; but thou shall understand hereafter."

He spoke of the Christian character of the deceased, his worth to the church, his self-sacrificinog spirit and his value as a citizen and the influence of such a life. The ideal home life of Mr. Park was referred to, and heartfelt The commanding officer heartily congratulates you on your excellent work here and hopes that he may have the pleasure of serving with you again some time in the near future.'

The ideal home life of Mr. Park was referred to, and heartfelt words of sympathy were spoken for the grief stricken family. The fact that all who had the pleasure of knowing Mr. Park bore testimony to his fine character was noticed. He spoke of the Christian side of the trage closing of the life of the deceased, and explained why the Lord allowed such deeds to take place. He spoke in a soulful way and with much feeling.

"Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "I Need Thee Every Hour" were sung by Eben Learned, accompanied by Organist E. P. Rose. The ushers were Deacons Charles R. Cross, and Erastus Gardner. The bearers were Frank L Lathrop, Fred Wilson, Erastus Gardner, and Charles R. Cross. Burlal was in the West Plain cemetery, where a committal service was read. Funeral Director Gager had charge of the arrangements.

Jeremiah O'Connell.

Saturday morning the funeral of Jeremiah O'Connell was held from his late home, in Cedar street, and at St. Patrick's church a requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Hugh Treanor. Two solos were sung by Miss Greeley. There were many in attendance and handsome floral remembrances. The bearers were James J. Casey. Patrick Curran. E. W. Geduidig and J. O'Connell. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery. Funeral Director Gager had charge of the arrangements.

Taftville Sunday morning on the nine o'clock train, a special car being put on for them.

The day began with a ball game between two teams of the club, picked from the Germans and the French. The Germans won this game by the score of 8 to 5 after a hard struggle. Up to the minth inning the French nine led, the score at the beginning of this inning being 5 to 4 in favor of the French. But when the Germans came to but they had a rally. In which Volkman starred with a three bagger, and made four runs, winning the game. Krodel for the Germans pitched a great game. The Batterles: Germans, Krodel and Myers; French, Roberts and Lambert.

After the game chowder was served by Frank Wright.

The next thing was a ball game between the nines picked by Manager Parsons and Manager Schofield. This game resulted in a win for Manager Parsons' nine, which is now champion of the club. The score for the game was 5 to 4, and the batteries: Stone and Read, Pilling and Roberts. The features of this game were the pitching of Malone and the pitching of Stone.

AGED MAN BOWLED OVER.

Early Saturday evening, about a quarter of seven, another fight on Galliows Hill was added to the already long list of like events that are rapidly making that neighborhood notorlous. And it was not only the fight that has stirred up the people of the village, but a cowardly attack on an old man of over seventy years, named Kelleber, by George Goodbart, a young fellow who has long been noted for his bugilistic tendencies. The affair started in a saioon on Merchants avenue where Goodbart and a friend, Phillip Goodreau, are not infrequently found. Goodbart was quarreling with some of the other men, and Kelleber stepped in to stop the fight. Goodbart landed him in the gutter almost senseless. Policeman Brennan was prevented from arresting Goodbart by the latter's friends and with Goodreau he escaped to the woods.

Mr. Kelleber required the services of a doctor, who took four stitches above his left eye.

The affair Saturday night is the last of a series of outrages in one of which only a few months ago a man was nearly killed. Taftville people think that the time has arrived for drastic action and it is probable that Goodhart this time will not get off as easily as in the past.
